

K-LOVE radio has a huge impact on the communities in which they serve. There is no other station of this type and quality in my area. Having the option to hear Christian programming and news articles is extremely important to me and my family on a daily basis. It would have a definite negative impact on my family if this station was no longer available.